Opposing Viewpoints is an academic database provided by Gale. It provides statistics, articles, images, websites, and essays on a wide variety of controversial social issues.

To use Opposing Viewpoints:

1. Sign into MyIvy at http://my.ivytech.edu and click on the Library at the left side of the screen to access the Library website.
2. Under Search & Find, click Articles.
3. Click on Opposing Viewpoints in Context.

Browse or Search for a Topic

Browse by topic or by clicking one of the links under the subject categories, or choose View All to see a complete list of topics in that subject area.

Search for a specific topic by typing relevant keywords into the search box.

“Browse Issues” is an alphabetical list of popular topics. Click on any of the topics to be taken to a topic page that has a list of articles, statistics, websites, book chapters, images, and other sources.

Figure 1: Opposing Viewpoints home page
Navigating a Topic Page

Topic pages have a description of the topic along with a list of articles, statistics, websites, book chapters, images, and other sources. Click on a link to open the source.

Navigating a Source

You can now view, print, and email the source.

Sources that are text-based can also be read to you.

Use “Tools to perform a variety of tasks on the article. If you use “Highlights and Notes” your work will show when you “Print” the article.

References and article citations can be found at the bottom of the page.