THE NEW MLA FORMAT

1. AUTHOR
   Same format, but if there are 3 or more authors, use et al.

2. TITLE OF SOURCE

3. TITLE OF CONTAINER

4. OTHER CONTRIBUTORS
   People like editors, translators, etc. Abbreviations are no longer used.

5. VERSION and 6. NUMBER
   Editions, volumes, etc. Format has changed: 2nd ed., vol. 5, no. 3.

7. PUBLISHER
   City for publisher is no longer needed.

8. PUBLICATION DATE
   If not available, n.d. is no longer needed.

9. LOCATION
   Place where it was found: generally, a URL (without http://) or page numbers (using p. or pp.).

THE CONTAINER CONCEPT

New term for what holds a source:
- An article (source) in a journal (container)
- An episode (source) in a series (container)
- An article (source) in a newspaper (container) found in a database (second container)

There can be more than one correct way to document a source!
