APA and MLA Style Templates

Are your students struggling to format their papers according to APA or MLA style? The Library provides templates to help students with the mechanics of formatting so that they can focus on the content of their papers. You can find these templates, along with other citation and plagiarism information, at:

http://library.ivytech.edu/BloomingtonPlagiarism

February is Black History Month

Visit African-American History from Infobase for primary documents, maps, graphs, biographies and more, covering the entire spectrum of African-American history over the past 500 years.

Visit the African American Experience from ABC-CLIO for viewpoints, videos, primary documents and more covering African American history and culture.