Zietlow Cookbook Collection

You may have read in the Herald-Times recently that local legend Charlotte Zietlow has donated nearly 500 cookbooks to our library collection. Thanks in large part to four Library Technical Assistant (LTA) students, these cookbooks have been cleaned, processed, and cataloged, and they are now available for check-out. If you see these students around campus, be sure to give them a big “THANK YOU.”

The library looks forward to hosting a dedication of this remarkable collection in early August. Please check the Weekly News for updates on details as we approach the end of summer term.

Books on CD Now Available

We've had several requests for books on CD, and we are happy to announce that we now have several available. See a small sampling below. Many thanks go to Jim Shride for his donations that helped us jumpstart this collection. Thrillers, mysteries, classics, best-sellers and more are available. Stop by and check it out!
