Chronicle of Higher Education

To help you stay up to date on the latest college and university news, the library subscribes to the Chronicle of Higher Education.

The print version is published weekly (or biweekly, depending on the time of year), and can be found in our periodical section.

Or, if you prefer, you can access the Chronicle of Higher Education online through the library’s website. The online version is updated daily and includes news, opinion, advice, and more.

You can also sign up to receive Chronicle newsletters to be delivered via email. Daily newsletter options include Academe Today or the Afternoon Update. If you prefer a weekly newsletter, you might try the Chronicle Review which is delivered every Monday, or the Weekly Briefing which is delivered each Friday.

Visit the Chronicle Newsletters page to make your selections and start receiving your newsletters within a few days!

Erika Gilchrist Books Now Available for Checkout

Award-winning motivational speaker Erika Gilchrist recently visited our campus to give the keynote address at the Diversity Committee’s Speaker Series event on domestic abuse.

She is a domestic violence survivor and has published several books, many of which are now available for checkout at the library.
